RIVER'S EDGE HOMEOWNER'S ASSOCIATION, INC
SPECIAL MEETING
DECEMBER 27, 2006

President, Gary Fields at the Charlestown Community Center, called meeting to order at 7:10 p.m. Gary requested everyone to please stand for the allegiance to the flag.

See attached Sign-in Sheet for members present. 26 members present out of 68.

This "Special Meeting" was called because the agreement of terminology and covenants had been reached with David and Carolyn Stone and our attorney Alan Applegate and the membership needed to vote on the changes of our Declaration of Covenants and By-Laws. This vote on these issues would allow for the purchase of the staging area for the mobile home owners. Copies of the proposed "Second Amendment to Amended Declaration of Covenants, Conditions, and Restrictions for the River's Edge Homeowner's Association, Inc. and Amended By-Laws of River's Edge Homeowner's Association, Inc." and copies of the "Amendment to Declaration of Covenants, Conditions, and Restrictions for River's Edge" were mailed out to all members to review before this meeting. Copies attached.

President's Opening Statement:

Gary Fields thanked everyone for coming and dispensed the reading of the minutes from the last "Special" meeting held and the treasurer's report. Gary stated attorney, Alan Applegate would explain any questions members have.

A question was asked about assessments on the staging area property. Alan explained he tried to modify the restrictions that affected this property, and all of the properties, and create a "second class" of ownership of the association so this property could be purchased.

Concerning assessments, he tried to match the type of language and add to it the maintenance of these particular lots. To the extent of the current restrictions, it requires the owner of Lot #236 to pay an annual assessment. Once the association acquires this property, Lot #236 will not pay the association the assessment because the association will own this property. It can't assess itself an assessment. But, Alan was made aware that no assessments were payable on Lot #236 because it was owned by Petroblend, Inc. So, the status quo will not change after the execution of this document.

Gary reported that after membership had met in August 2006, we had hoped to have everything wrapped up and back to membership in October. But in October, Bob Mueller reported to the Board there was another set of covenants for the properties on Stoneview Drive and that Lot #236 was in this group and #237 wasn't. In these restrictions it states that you could not put anything but a residential building on Lot #236.

At that time we realized we needed to contact Alan Applegate to get this changed so that property could be purchased. We didn't want to purchase this property and find out that a mobile home could not be moved on that property in case of a flood because we were in violation of the covenants. Alan was contacted to get this changed. It took longer than we thought. We did not get the finished product back. Brad Simpson called Gary Fields on November 17th stating he had the completed documents. Thanksgiving was coming up.

A board meeting was called for December 3rd, but delayed until December 6th to review the documents with Alan Applegate. Gary apologized for having to call this meeting during the holidays, but it was decided tonight was the best night to have this meeting.

Gary reported that Carolyn reported through e-mail that she would not be at this meeting, but she felt comfortable with everything that read in this set of covenants and that we could present it to membership to vote on.

Alan asked if there was a property lease in place right now for mobile homes to be put in case of flood conditions. Gary reported the association does have a lease until June 1, 2007.

Brad Simpson reported that Carolyn Stone stated we would have use of the proposed purchased property in case of flood conditions until the contract was completed.

Gary asked if there were any other questions.

RIVER'S EDGE HOMEOWNER'S ASSOCIATION, INC.
SPECIAL MEETING
DECEMBER 27, 2006

Alan Applegate's issues were how to get the property conveyed over, and Carolyn sent him an e-mail that she was going to record some deeds from Petroblend, Inc. into River's Edge Community, Inc. and when she got that done she would let him know. Once that was verified that was of record, we could transfer the deed conveyance. There would be a deed, a second amendment to the restrictions, and the amendment of the restrictions on the property on Stoneview Drive to allow the mobile homes to be parked on the property.

Gary requested Alan to explain what happened in our August meeting of some of the By-Law changes that created the scurry of inquiries. Alan stated he had made changes to our restrictions that made Carolyn mad because they were not perceived to be dealing with the acquisition of this property. Alan admitted he did make changes that did not necessarily deal with the acquisition of the property that did not make things go smoother. There was a period with no communication. Brad Simpson got everybody talking again. Carolyn had substantial changes to the documents; some of which Alan agreed with and some he didn't and the majority are incorporated in the current documents and agreed upon.

Alan stated the primary thing that Carolyn wanted to indicate in these documents is that there is a set of restrictions on the homes on Stoneview Drive and a set of restrictions on the riverfront properties and Alan treated them all as one. Rather than go through and fight over the legal effect of those documents, we treated both restrictions as being amended. There's one document called the "Second Amendment" (river lots) and one document called the "Amendments" (the hill lots, Stoneview Drive). Hopefully, this clarifies some of the confusion. Carolyn's goal was to make sure that within those documents that confusion was cleared up.

Bob Mueller stated that where we end up now, according to his understanding, is that the documents that existed pre this meeting are in tact except for the changes that are made tonight. Alan agreed. Alan stated there would be two sets of restrictions and they're merely modified on Stoneview Drive saying that mobile homes could be parked on those lots in the event of emergency and the homeowners could not restrict the mobile homes from parking there in that event; and secondly, there are two classes of association members.

There are the contributors to the two lots and the non-contributors. Ultimately, this second amendment will need to be completed to have the names and those contributors and that will be the Class B members.

There was a question if there would be any additional assessment fees, over and above the initial $3,000 paid by each mobile home owner, for attorney fees. Gary Fields stated we have not been able to sit down and talk with the attorney, Alan. Originally, all the attorney fees were going to come out of the $3,000 each owner paid. Hopefully, that is where it's going to come from, but he did not know. Because of all the language changes in our restrictions and negotiations, what we thought was going to be an easy transaction has been a lengthy one. If there is an additional assessment, it will have to be brought back to membership.

Alan Applegate stated an original quote on attorney fees was given, but he has well exceeded that. Alan stated it has been a nightmare from his standpoint. There are five sets of restrictions that cover these properties and he had to go through them. He probably has $5,000 in fees. He does not expect to be paid tomorrow or at closing, but he does expect to be paid and he would be happy to work with us on it for an extended period of time.

A member asked how soon it would be before the closing. Is it going to be this week or six more months? Gary Fields reported that after tonight's vote, and it is accepted, and as soon as Carolyn gets us the documents that say the titles have been changed, we are ready to close. Hopefully, it will be done by the end of January. It will not be held up at our point. The ball is back to Carolyn. Carolyn assured Brad Simpson that she would get this taken care of and close by mail.

Alan requested that first the Board needs to provide the "Exhibit" of all the contributors so the Class B members will be shown and their lot numbers; and secondly, Carolyn provide copy of deed she is putting on record and Alan would prepare a deed from that company to the association. Then thirdly, a document stating where the dollars and cents go and corporate resolutions from Carolyn's company showing that the corporation does in fact exist and she has the authority to sign the document.

A member asked if the restriction on using the driveway easement on the property had been cleared up. Gary stated it was still verbal. This is the easement to which the conveyance is subject to the neighbor's driveway. The member was concerned that since it was just a verbal agreement, the Stone's could stop the use of the easement to get onto the purchased property at anytime and did not want to buy this property if cannot get to the property.

Another member stated that Carolyn Stone was on record stating that as long as she owned the property with the easement, the mobile home owners could use the easement to get onto the staging area property in case of flood conditions.

Alan Applegate stated that the property has road frontage. The owner of the property is entitled to use the easement for their own purposes so long as it does not interfere with the person who has the easement or destroy the easement. You have the right to go across the driveway and use it as long as you do not block it or damage the easement.

A member questioned if the monies for the legal fees for the purchase of this property was coming out of the association treasury or the $90,000 that property owners paid to purchase this property. Gary Fields stated the legal fees would be coming out of the $90,000.

Gary Fields reported that some people were under the assumption that certain properties are above flood stage and some not above flood stage. Mike Jacobs contacted Tony Semones, Building Commissioner, to find out the classes of flood zones. Tony advised that properties along the riverfront are in a Class "C" flood zone. This means it has a one percent chance of flooding within any given time of a 12-month period. Anything that is in a Class "B" or a Class "A" can be used for a staging area. The County would like to see us in a Class "A" but not required. We don't have to be above a certain elevation; we just have to be in a Class "B" or "A" flood zone for a staging area. Gary reported that properties on the other side of Stoneview Drive are in a Class "A" zone. Part of the soybean field is in a "B" zone. You have to be out of the "C" zone in flood conditions.

Gary Fields asked if there was a motion on the Second Amendment to Amended Declaration of Covenants, Conditions, and Restrictions for the River's Edge Homeowner's Association, Inc. and Amended By-Laws of River's Edge Homeowner's Association Inc. Alan Applegate stated this is the riverfront lots and the restrictions that govern them and is designed to create two classes of homeowner's association members, Class A and Class B. Class B is those parties who contributed towards the purchase of the staging area.

Bob Farris made a motion to accept the Second Amendment. Tim Summers second the motion. No further discussion. Gary called for the vote. Ayes have it. No opposing. Motion carried unanimously.

Alan Applegate stated there is another document needed to be discussed which concerns the properties on Stoneview Drive. This is the first Amendment to Declaration of Covenants, Conditions, and Restrictions for River's Edge. This talks about the two classes of membership, Class "A" and Class "B", which Carolyn Stone requested be put in. The second primary goal of this amendment is to state that the temporary staging of mobile homes on Lot #236 and the unplatted Lot #237 are not a violation of restrictions governing Lot #236.

Discussion held. Gary asked if there was a motion to accept the Amendment. Robin Roberts made a motion to accept the Amendment. Peggy Brown seconds the motion. Further discussion held.

A member asked if the Stones were going to be able to put their equipment or anything else on this purchased property. Gary Fields replied that they could not. This is a staging area only. Only the Class "B" members can use it to store mobile homes in case of flood evacuation.

A member asked if the property could be used to store the outdoor sheds. Gary Fields replied that only the Class "B" members would be able to store their sheds on the property. The Class "A" members cannot put their sheds on the property. We will have to make other arrangements for the Class "A" members for the storage of their sheds. A member asked if this was stated in the amendment. Alan Applegate stated that it does not. It says first these properties are still subject to the restrictions that these are amending and those have certain rules on what can or cannot be there. And secondly, the original purchase agreement that the Stones and the Association negotiated had certain restrictions that were going to be set forth in the actual deed to the Association. That is neither of these two amended documents being voted on tonight. It's in the deed restrictions statement.

There was heavy discussion on whether sheds could be stored on the staging area property or not.

RIVER'S EDGE HOMEOWNER'S ASSOCIATION, INC.
SPECIAL MEETING
DECEMBER 27, 2006

Bob Mueller stated he did not think sheds could be stored because the proposed Amendment under No. 3. "Use Restrictions" states "The staging area should not be used for temporary or long-term storage of any kind by anyone, except for the temporary storage of mobile homes upon an evacuation order issued by Clark County Commissioners indicating that flooding of the Properties is imminent".

A member inquired about the deed restrictions. Alan stated the deed restrictions that are in the purchase agreement first states that property cannot be used as a temporary or a long-term storage area by anyone other than for the reason listed below in No. 3 of this agreement which is the third private restriction. Mobile homes can be placed temporarily on property when an evacuation order is received from Clark County officials stating flooding is imminent. So, that is a private restriction and it's just mobile homes, not sheds.

It was stated that the sheds could be put on the road. The first priority is the mobile homes.

Alan Applegate read other deed restrictions. Copy attached. (Need to get copy from Alan.)

No further discussion. Gary Fields asked members for vote on motion. Ayes have it. No opposing. Motion carried unanimously.

Gary thanked Alan. Gary asked for a round of applause for Brad Simpson because he has spent a lot of time and stress on this project.

Gary announced that Carolyn Stone has made comment that they may not be cutting grass next year. He wanted to put us on notice that we might be looking for a grass cutter.

Peggy Brown stated it was reported that the contract should be closed by the end of January. She asked what will happen if Carolyn Stone backs out of this contract again. Gary stated we do still have a property lease to June of 2007 and another member stated we will use Stoneview Drive if we have to.

Brad Simpson asked if we needed to establish a governing body of the Class "B" members to make decisions concerning the staging area property. Discussion was held. It was suggested we wait to discuss further at our annual membership meeting in June 2007.

Gary thanked Alan Applegate again.

Gary Fields announced that there is action going against Rivers Edge Utility by the Indiana Utility Regulatory Commissions. There will be a hearing in Indianapolis on Tuesday, March 13, 2007 at 10:00 a.m. at 100 Senate Street on the first floor. It appears that they do not have a current permit to operate as a sewer facility. If anyone wants to know what is happening, you might want to contact the IURC and Gary has the phone number. The current sewer system will be addressed and what action will be taken. Gary announced this for record to make membership aware of this action.

Gary asked if there was a motion for adjournment. Mike Callis made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Robin Roberts second the motion. Motion carried. Meeting was adjourned at 8:05 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Linda Fugit
